

Action points from Homes for All meeting 25 May 2019

1. Promote the organisation of street stalls and leafleting to be held on or around 8 June with campaign focus on all or any of the following :

- * Universal Credit
- Grenfell and building support for the national protest 15 June.
- Stopping the sell off of public housing

2. The ' Humanity' NGOs to be advised how to engage with the Homes for All campaign.

3. 7th June - Dan (One Housing tenant Camden) and fellow tenants will be formally handing a letter to One Housing re ending the use of Section 21 eviction notices. Dan will advise Eileen of the time and any revised date and others encouraged to join him on the day.

4. Any information on public housing sell offs or on empty homes and campaigns around these should be passed to Glyn. He is in contact with a journalist interested in covering these issues.

5. Glyn would also like to hear from those interested in the above issues with a view to developing a coordinated campaign, potentially involving unions and other interested campaign groups.

6. Details of council and HA properties that are submitted for auction should be circulated to provide the relevant information to interested campaign groups.

7. Individuals to contact their MPs to ask them to attend the debate on 13 June and to support the motion put by the Parliamentary Group for Council Housing. Eileen to prepare a model email. This motion incorporates many of the issues contained in the Homes for All charter.

8. Carol will send out details of the Labour Council Housing Group launch 28 May.

9. The 100th anniversary of the Addison Act, the planning legislation that is widely regarded as establishing council housing, falls in July. A media statement and other action around this anniversary will be agreed at the next meeting. This provides a good opportunity to promote the Homes for All Charter and associated campaigns.

10. Extinction Rebellion to be contacted to open discussion regarding affordable housing and the environmentalist agenda.
